SUMMER PLACES.

PETOSKEY.

Petoskey, Mich., Aug. 6.—An unusual spell of cold and cloudy weather has dampened the ardor of the resort word this week and has had an appreciable effect on northward travel. Two circuses in one week, however, have brightened things up a little and added a touch of country life to Petoskey's promenades. saturday, August $, is observed throughout this region as "Hospital Day," the special object being to raise by booths and other means devised by the ladies funds to provide for the current expenses of Lockwood Hospital, endowed three years ago by William Lockwood of $\overline{8}$t. Louis, a summer resident of Petoskey. In this way $\overline{8}$t. Louis is permanently linked with Petoskey in charitable interest. J. B. Brown of Rossville, Ill., and sister, Mrs. I. E.
